EDITORIAL

The meeting of our football team with the Hilo Athletic Association was not a friendly one and it could not be well understood. The misunderstanding of the game added a new commotion. The tickets were well sold and the interest of the public was great but our players, who had fed the fishes hard, were not able to play the game. It finally came to a conclusion. The game was postponed to Saturday, which was our scheduled day.

The players were well fed, like the fishes, after the defeats. They enjoyed greatly riding, attending dinners, and the wonderful scenery.

Yells and songs were exchanged at the harbor and every one departed with a hearty shake and smile.

The reason of our defeat was a lack of spirit so let us all, the students of Maui Hi, cooperate and back our school for victory.

In The Kitchen

One of the cooking girls was asked to make sauce one day. She placed the pot containing the ingredients upon the oil stove and stirred the contents for fifteen minutes. But still, the sauce failed to thicken. She was wondering why it did not thicken when she discovered that she had failed to light the stove.

One day the cooking girls were making cream puffs. As these puffs rose beautifully, the girls were naturally proud of their skill. But alas! when the muffin-pan was taken out of the oven, the wonderful, wonderful puffs fell flat, and what a fall the girls' pride suffered!

COMING EVENTS

In appreciation of the time and work the girls put into raising money to send the football squad to Hilo, the boys of Maui High have promised to back the girls' basketball team, "to the limit" if they wait to play any inter-island games.

The Christmas holidays commenced at noon December 15. They will be more welcome than usual because the mental tortures of examinations will be absent. The High School year is divided into two semesters and the midyear examinations are taken in February.

Maui Hi is proud of Mr. Linton, who is a graduate of Maui Hi, and has been appointed assistant professor in Columbia University.

JUNIOR NOTES

Errol von Kempsey left for Honolulu on the S. S. Kilauea, Saturday night. From there he will proceed to the mainland. He intends to go to Jack London's ranch, at Glen Ellen, in California.

We should all be proud of Miss Haisue Kanda, who is now attending the Hornell High School in New York. She was on the honor roll of that school. One of her classmates received a letter from her recently. She wrote that she is the only oriental in that school.

Gossip On The Train

This week Tuesday, the Fifth day of December the Year of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty Two, our football boys arrived home from Hilo without the bacon but with a bit of enthusiasm. This enthusiasm was readily known that same morning.

A passenger seeing many groups of lads in the boys' coach, would have thought that a hot discussion of French, Latin or of some Geometrical problem was in session. But the funniest thing was that the discussion was centered around the football players who had been in Hilo and not in school.

Then what was it all about? But alas! The most enthusiastic speaker over-enunciated his words saying, "She was a blonde, had wonderful eyes, and, oh,—by the way, Pereira she asked me who you were." The mystery was solved. It was about some fair one in the Crescent City. No wonder they were so enthusiastic.

THANKSGIVING DAY IN HILO

Most of the football boys who were in Hilo on Thanksgiving day were thinking about home at lunch time. Why? Because they missed their roast turkey, cranberry sauce, mince and pumpkin pies. Oh, m-m! m-m! all the good "kankau" they missed at home on Thanksgiving day, although they claimed they had roasted duck.

The boys reported a good time but they could not forget Maui.

LOST

A perfect set of Heart Throbs, Finder return to one Alfred Rego, Maui Thrill Association, Hamakua-ko, Maui.

Evidently Beauties

L. W.—"The Hilo girls are real girls."
Mr. J.—"You mean they are real (movie) girls."
A. D.—"So you didn't lose your head in Hilo."
G. G.—"No but I lost my heart."

Miss Alma Ross has left for California where she will undergo treatment for her asthmatic trouble.

Mr. Judd says that he spent the holidays investigating the troubles of Turkey. He decided its greatest misfortune had been that it lost its head.

As it is with the most of us.
P. W.—"How many studies are you carrying?"
A. R.—"I'm carrying one and dragging three."

A. S. L.—"Did your teacher go to the mountain this Thanksgiving?"
Eddie R.—"Not mine, she believes in low grades."

Dramatics

The two one act plays that "The Puka Nani Hui" will put on at the Puka Community House on December 16, are progressing rapidly towards a roaring success under the excellent directorship of Miss Johnson.

Due to the extended illness of the club's business and advertising manager, Miss Sadie Whitehead, a special meeting was held to appoint a temporary manager.

After the performance there will be a dance, for which excellent music will be provided.

The "Maker of Dreams" which is a very picturesque and airy play has a very able cast, which consists of the Misses Doris Hair and Clara Cambra and Mr. Floyd Brown.

The short humorous sketch "At the Movies" will afford much entertainment, as the character of the playlet is one you are liable to see in any small town theater. It will be ably presented by the Misses Lucy Baldwin, Emma Tavares, Elizabeth Walsh and the Messrs. Frank Sommerfeld and Walter Walker.

All eggs and vegetables to be parked at the entrance and used as needed.

It is said that Prescott became blind when someone hit him in the eye with a biscuit. If he had been hit with some Freshman's biscuit, he would have gone to the summit of Haleakala.

Three of our faculty, Miss Alvord, Miss Buell and Miss Blanchard, spent the Thanksgiving vacation on a trip to the crater. They started at noon on Friday and reached there in the evening. They found themselves in an entirely different atmosphere. It was so cold that water left outside of the Rest House froze before morning.

Saturday night was spent at a cave within the crater. On Sunday afternoon they reached home and on Monday morning they were at their daily routine without apparent fatigue.

Throughout the entire vacation Mr. Judd remained at home, hoeing in overalls in his garden.

Miss Wobbs was a guest at Mrs. Cameron's on Thanksgiving.

AN AWFUL OUTRAGE

The idea of putting a Japanese poster in an American High School where everyone speaks English! This is more than some people can stand. The President of the Student Body must be indulging in Japanese. (F. B. how do you get that way?) Watch out for tar and feathers.

MAUI HI LOSES

The game was hard fought and it seemed as if the Maui boys were lost in the Hilo field. It was not, however, that we found the Hilo team better than ours for they were not, but—we missed our rooters.

Tommy Aki played his best at quarter and so did the rest of the team. The game started off in our favor but in the second quarter the Hilo team scored a touchdown by kicking the ball from Leslie's arm and running off for a touchdown.

In the last quarter Tommy Aki made a touchdown but the linesman could not understand how Tommy could beat the forward pass and catch it behind the goal posts, so he was called back for being offside. The game ended with a tune of 6-0.

Basketball

Thursday night, the night we arrived in Hilo, we played a basketball game. Although we lost, the players must be credited with the following things:

1. We played without our regular team.
2. Maui Hi has not played basketball this year.
3. There was never a game on Maui where there were 20 minutes halves.

The score was 11-9 in the first half with Hilo Hi leading.

In the second half, our boys, not accustomed to playing 20 minutes halves, had to be fully recruited by other football players who knew very little of basketball.

The score finally stood 24-14 with Hilo on top.

Tennis

Arthur and Leong Yee showed up fine by rubbing Mr. Detrick and Vaile, champions of the Big Island, in a tennis match in Hilo courts last Sunday. Although the match stood in favor of the Hilo players, the Yee boys showed real tennis ability.

But when it came to playing doubles the Yee brothers gave them the rub of their lives by holding them in the first game to a tune of 8-6 and tying the second game 6-6. Then the Hilo players called the game off on account of being fatigued, which held our boys from giving them a good razzing. The scores stood:

Singles—Detrick, 6-6; Arthur Yee, 3-4; Vaile, 6-6; Leong Yee, 4-2.
Doubles—Vaile-Detrick, 8-6, Yee Bros. 6-6.

Pigskin Artists Get Real Welcome From Hi Student Body

The High School football team returned to school on Tuesday morning. All of the boys were present with the exception of two or three. They all appeared well and were heartily welcomed in the assembly hall by the school.

The school was given a surprise when 16 girls, dressed in white, and three teachers entered the auditorium and marched up to the stage. Each one wore a placard bearing the nickname of the football boy she represented. They sang a song and then, led by Miss Davis, they gave a yell for the team, after which they went to their seats.

Mr. Judd asked "Coach Humphrey" to speak and she did. She welcomed the boys and assured them that we were proud of them. "Frog II" was the next to speak and she in turn called upon Frog I. By this time the girls representing the other players were seen removing their placards in order to escape Mr. Judd's notice.

Captain Aki's representative was called upon and she also turned the work over to Captain Tommy. If the girls expected to surprise the school they had the tables turned on them. Many were the sighs of relief when Mr. Judd stopped calling on the girls and turned his attention to Mr. Humphrey.

Tells of Trip

Mr. Humphrey spoke of the reception of our team at Hilo and of the games played.

A few of the football players were asked to speak and the school learned of a new football formation which the boys formed on board the boat. This was the "rail formation" and it was formed when the boys decided to feed the fishes of the 'Alanihaha' channel.

They were eloquent in their praise of the Hilo girls and their entertainment; however, they must be glad to get back to Maui after having been stuffed with "Chop Suey" and duck while in Hilo.

The speakers thanked the girls for their aid in raising funds and at a second meeting the manager of the team pledged the boys' support in anything undertaken by the girls and promised their aid in sending the girls' basketball team away to play inter-island games.

GIRLS' SPORTS

The Maui Hi girls' basketball team will travel to Honolulu some time this winter. The girls have been practicing regularly at the Walluku Gymnasium. It is reported by an onlooker that they are doing fine and he would not be surprised to see them win in the near future.

The Freshman indoor baseball team will play the Paia 8th Grade on Thursday. The captain of the team is very confident that they will win the game.

Friend Peace Scholarship

A letter, announcing this year's "The Friend Peace Scholarship", was received by Mr. Judd. The purpose of this scholarship is to promote friendly relations between Japan and America. Only Japanese students, of either sex, not over 21 years of age of any high school senior class and those who have a high school diploma, are eligible.

Previous to the New Plan of 1922, which provides for the selection of students from the Territory, students from Japan were chosen and sent to mainland colleges and universities. This year there are a few students in our school who are planning to enter this contest. The award of scholarship is decided by a contest based on total number of points as follows: character 3 points, scholarship 2 points, physique 2 points, essay on International Relations 2 points and participation in school activities 1 point. The subject for this year's essay is "The Case Against Dual Citizenship in Hawaii."

Thrift Essay Contest

The office has received a notice of a thrift essay contest which began on November 15 and will close on December 15. The students who are eligible to enter this contest are divided into five groups: 1-4th and 5th, grades, 11-6th, and 7th, grades, 11-8th, grade, 4-Freshmen and Sophomores, 5-High School Juniors and Seniors. Each contestant is permitted to choose his or her own subject, provided it pertains to some phase of thrift. The essays written by students in groups I and II should exceed 150 words in length. In groups III, IV and V the maximum length is 250 words. Fourteen prizes are to be awarded in each group: first prize $10; second prize $5; third prize $3; fourth prize $2 and ten prizes of $1 each.
